

universität
wien

Institut für Geschichte

Diplomacy in Conflict

www.univie.ac.at/diplomacy

Conflict Management in Modern Diplomacy (1500-1914)

8-10 February 2018, University of Vienna
Location: Campus AKH, "Aula" and "Alte Kapelle"

Thu 14.00-14.20 h

Introduction – Dorothea Nolde

Thu 14.20 – 17.00

Dealing with conflicts I: From Balance to Escalation (Chair: Dorothea Nolde)

Camille Desenclos

Université de Haute Alsace,
Mulhouse

Bourbon vs Habsburg: Latent Conflict as Diplomatic Way of Life
(1598-1624)

Hannes Ziegler

German Historical Institute
London

Elusive Diplomacy. Saxonian Attitudes towards Political and Confessional Conflicts during the Reign of August (1553–1586)

Matylda Urjasz-Raczko

University of Warsaw

Fluctuating Frustration. Spanish Monarchy and the Polish-Lithuanian Republic during 1573-1648

Christoph Valentin

University of Münster

Managing Conflicts by Escalation. The Papal Diplomacy and the German Catholics Movement in 1844-45

Thu 17.30-19.30

Dealing with conflicts II: Coping with Challenges (Chair: Julia Gebke)

Ekaterina Domnina

Moscow State University

From Fact to Fiction: Setting and Breaking Ceremonial Rules in Anglo-Papal Diplomacy, 1470-1558

Jiří Kubeš

University of Pardubice

Imperial Envoy Franz Sigmund Count von Thun and Dissimulation
by the English King Charles II in the early 1680s

Patrick Milton

Freie Universität Berlin

"The looming thunder storms may strike us sooner than expected": A Mecklenburg Diplomat with an Impossible Brief at the Emperor's Court in Vienna, 1714-1721

Fri 9.00-10.20 h

Dealing with conflicts III: A variety of strategies (Chair: Dorothea Nolde)

Elena Taddei
University of Innsbruck

Bargaining and Dealing on the other Side of the Alps: Italian Ambassadors at German Courts

Lena Oetzel
University of Salzburg

„[The] Hero at Münster and Osnabrück“? Count Trauttmansdorff's Conflict Management at the Westphalian Peace Congress

Fri 11.00-13.00, 2 parallel Panels

Caught in between: Possibilities and Limits of Mediation (Chair: Stephan Mai)

Tomáš Černušák
Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic

The Papal Nuncio Caetani between the Emperor Rudolf and Archduke Matthias: From Mediation to Misrepresentation

Markus Laufs
University of Bonn

Satisfying Both Sides or None of them. Intermediaries' Practices and their Conflict Potential at the Congresses of Münster (1643–1649) and Nijmegen (1676–1679)

Christof Muigg
University of Vienna

With Swords and Words: An Imperial Agent and Military Commander in the Old Swiss Confederacy 1641-1661

A Joint Venture: Working Couples and Family Networks (Chair: Barbara Haider-Wilson)

Julia Gebke
University of Vienna

Going Sideways. Female Networks in Habsburg Diplomacy

Carmen María Fernández Nadal
University Jaume I, Castellón

The Shadow of Family Conflicts in Exercising a Diplomatic Role. Pedro Fernández de Velasco (1633-1713)

Lars-Dieter Leisner
University of Vienna

Two of a Kind !?! Working Couples as Conflict Managers in Habsburg Diplomacy at the Papal Court of the late 17th Century.

Andrés María Vicent Fanconi
University Autónoma de
Madrid

Guardians of the "Style": Royal Women and Iberian Legitimism.

Fri 14.30-16.30 h, 2 parallel Panels

Going Global I: Worlds Apart? (Chair: Julia Gebke)

Rubén González Cuerva CSIC, Madrid	Managing Gentiles, Heretics and Infidels: The Reception of Non-Catholic Embassies in 17th Century Madrid
Birgit Tremml-Werner University of Zurich	Creating, Avoiding and Managing Conflicts: Sebastián Vizcaíno as New Spain's Ambassador to Tokugawa Japan
Andrew Cobbing University of Nottingham	Meiji Diplomatic Strategies for Bridging Competing World Orders in Nineteenth-Century East Asia

Going Global II: Local Interests – Global Repercussions (Chair: Birgitta Bader-Zaar)

João Júlio Gomes dos Santos, Jr. Universidade Estadual do Ceará, Brasil	The Controversial Asylum: Global Discussions about a Diplomatic Conflict between Brazil and Portugal in 1894
Juliette Desplat The National Archives, London	Britain, France and the Diplomatic Scramble for Egypt, 1869-1882
Stefanie Walther University of Bremen	Diplomacy without Diplomats? The West-African Trading Efforts of Brandenburg-Prussia as Diplomatic Challenge

Fri 17.00-19.40 h

Going Global III: Bridging Cultural Antagonisms (Chair: Dorothea Nolde)

Bulat Rakhimzianov Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Tatarstan	Muscovy and the Tatar world: Cooperation and Confrontation during the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries
Zsuzsanna Cziráki University of Szeged	Negotiation Techniques and Strategies of the Habsburg Diplomacy at the Sublime Porte during the Peace Negotiations of 1649
Michael Talbot University of Greenwich, London	The Rhetoric of Mediation in the Ottoman Empire in the mid-eighteenth Century
Seyfi Kenan Marmara University, Istanbul	Stages of Conflict Resolution in Yahsh Treaty in the late 18th Century Ottomans

Sat, 9.00-12.00 h

Special Agents: Education, Art & Press (Chair: Thomas Angerer)

Kyrillos Nikolaou Panteion University of Political and Social Sciences, Athens	Education Diplomacy. Rivalry and Compromises between France, Italy, Vatican and Great Britain for the Education of the Catholics of Cyprus, 1878-1914
Sandra Kriebel Humboldt University, Berlin	Art Exhibitions as Diplomatic Gestures. Conflict Management via Cultural Exchange before World War I
Michael Auwers University of Antwerp	“No Leverage in the Press.” How the Belgian Foreign Ministry Managed the Conflictual Encounters with Journalists before the First World War
Aleksandra Kolaković Institute of Political Studies, Belgrad	French Diplomacy and Intellectuals in the Maelstrom of Conflict between Austria-Hungary and Serbia during the Annexation Crisis (1908/9)

Sat 12.30-14.00 h

Final discussion and further Perspectives

Registration

The conference is open to the public, but participants are required to register in advance via the following link:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/conflict-management-in-modern-diplomacy-1500-1914-tickets-42310195935>